

In 2023, our church body will be reading through the Old Testament; however, we realize that some want to have a New Testament reading plan as well. As with the Old Testament reading plan, the New Testament weekly readings begin on Monday and end on Sunday. There are a total of five readings per week. Having fewer readings each week gives opportunity to "catch up" missed days or to have deeper study of the passages read.

As you read through each passage of Scripture, take time to journal notes, write down questions, make connections, and most importantly meditate on the passage throughout the day. Keep in mind that even if you do not get that "ah-ha" moment each time you read a passage, the Holy Spirit is using the Scriptures to teach you, guide you, inspire you, and bless you.

We are praying for you throughout this year that your relationship with God will grow stronger while reading through each text of Scripture.
